And beyond the realm of the personal, feminist theory has literally opened up a whole new world of reading. Unlike some other kinds of literary criticism (cough psychoanalysis cough), feminism doesn't just want to talk about new ways of reading secret phallus symbols into old classics. Since the 1970s, feminist scholars have re-shaped the literary canon in a BIG way, digging up tons of work by women writers throughout the ages, and giving that work the attention it deserves.
